A FARMER'S DEEDS.

GOV. BECKHAM.

Shot His Daughter and Mrs. Culver, Then Committed Suicide.

Hopkinsville, Ky., March 6.—After Merton, a well-known farmer and a tall, waddled his daughter and shot Mrs. John Culver, committed suicide Thursday in a barn when he found his building tools and materials which had been sent in pursuit of him. Merton Wednesday night went to the home of his son, where his stepdaughter, Mary Culver, was spending the night. Culver was away from the house. Merton entered the house and shot his wife twice and drew two shots.

Mrs. Culver, who was passing through her lungs, Merton went to the house of Dock Latta, two miles away, where he lay down and died early Thursday morning. He was buried at a gauntlet bloodbath trailing him to death. When he heard them shoot, he was able to run away, but was hit by a green and then shot himself through the head, falling dead. It is said he tried to shoot his divisor, who was believed to be trying to usurp his office to kill his wife and this is thought the reason he did not suicide when he was hit.

Case of Commonwealth Against the C. & O. Railroad Co.

Frankfort, Ky., March 6.—In the case of the commonwealth against the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Co., for long and short haul, the court of appeals held that the railroad shippers in Kentucky or more lines of different carriers it is not embezzled by terms of the statute, but rather that the state's economic opposition did not shate and will be upheld by the court.

Washington, March 5.—The defense team succeeded in getting the jury to acquit the 12 men who were the victims. It is claimed of John Collins, known as "Goss," Collins free from charges, who, it is said, had been shot in the head, while a train crossing the bridge on their way because he thought some one was about to shoot him.

Other persons passing on the bridge had narrow escapes from being injured by the shots.
